The Cause of Our Grief.

[From the Virginia Chronicle.]

Fleabite is dead. For the benefit of the ignorant it may be as well to say that Fleabite was a dog much beloved in this office. He came in a weary, foot-sore and friendless tramp about a year ago, and the printers made a bed in a dry goods box. In a few days he assumed the arrogance of a man. From a mangy, flea-infested, cast-down, poverty-stricken pup, he suddenly changed into a well-fed and indolent canine, who seemed to think that the whole office was his. He snapped at the heels of his benefactors, laid violent teeth on the hands that fed him, and showed all the forgetfulness and ingratitude that a man might under similar circumstances. While Fleabite assumed this position towards the forbearing printers, he fawned on the bigger hunting dogs about the place until he wormed into their society, and finally affiliated with them on equal terms like a small man enjoying the patronage of the great. He insulted every decent dog that came into the office, and was backed up by these big friends. This kind of thing caused him to become so bloated with his own importance that he seemed to think he weighed a ton. He would attack a team of mules with impunity and assault a dog ten times his size. His solid cheek carried him through.

The first set-back that Fleabite ever got was when he attacked the fly-wheel of a printing press of about five-horse power. It knocked him twenty feet down the back stairs, but he got up as coolly as possible and looked around as much as to say, "I always go down stairs that way." On Saturday night last he bounced a quartz wagon. He found his match at last. One of the wheels passed over him, and he came limping into the office looking very sick. It would have killed any other dog on the spot. His big friends showed genuine grief at his condition, and licked his wounds. He at once lay down on a pile of California exchanges and coiled up to die. The hunting dogs never left his side, but continued whining their condolence and licking his wounds. Some of the printers said they guessed they'd get a doctor. The dog hearing this gave up all hope, and coiling up as small as possible on a copy of the Record-Union, gave a low whine and died. He was buried at the corner of D and Taylor streets. The same wagon that killed him now rolls over him every day, the driver swearing at his mules as usual.

Discouraging Reports from Tuscarora.

Silver State: The Grand Prize mill is said to have been shut down to-day, and the last shipment of bullion that will probably be made for months from that mine is now on the way to San Francisco. It is reported that all the ore in the mine above water level has been extracted and crushed, and henceforth, for months, operations will be confined to sinking the shaft. It is also stated by men who left Tuscarora a few days ago, that the pumps have been taken out of the Navajo, and that the works are filled with water. Surmises as to the object sought to be attained by suspending operations on two of the principal mines in Tuscarora are numerous. Some think it is done to bear everything in the district, but particularly for the purpose of enabling the managers of the Grand Prize, who are supposed to have unloaded when the stock sold at $8 a share, to buy it back at a dollar a share; but whatever the cause, the result is disastrous to the present prosperity of what was considered a few months ago one of the best mining camps in the State. Real estate is said to have depreciated at least fifty per cent; merchants having large stocks of goods on hand are selling at cost, and all who can get away are arranging to do so. It is to be hoped that these reports are exaggerated, and that the directors of the principal mines have not put up a job to bear the stock and frighten people away from Tuscarora.

The Cincinnatians deny that the founders of their city were the descendants of Ham. The very idea makes them bristle with indignation.

All Sorts of Items.

The miners of Nevada are lying on their oars.

Whitchall Times. Some prefer the scissors and steal.

The blackbird shooting was going on at a San Antonio, Texas, fair, the other day, a lady deprecated very much the cruelty of shooting the birds on the wing. Said she: "Why don't they shoot little birds on the ground, so they won't fall and hurt themselves?"

They have been making butter out of tallow for some time, and now we see by the papers that somebody has devised a plan for turning potatoes into cheese. The next thing we know some Yankee genius will have a patent for drawing imported French brandy out of oil wells.

It was reported last week that Montgomery Blair was threatened with paralysis of the jaw. The bright gleam of public anticipation was darkened by gloom, however, when it appeared that it was only his upper teeth that had fallen down.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

RETURNED.—Mrs. Julia J. Prescott has just returned from San Francisco, after a careful inspection of all the latest novelties in the line of fancy goods and millinery. Mrs. Prescott congratulates herself that her labors to supply the ladies of Reno and vicinity with the latest styles have been appreciated, and her recent visit of four weeks to the city of San Francisco has been purposely prolonged that she might study and select the exquisite spring and summer styles which she now offers to her patrons. Her prices are lower than ever, to suit the hard times, and the goods are now displayed at her establishment, on Commercial Row. The ladies should call.

PLATFORMS AND PLEDGES.

If platforms have any weight or significance, a thing we very much doubt, Governor Bradley openly and notoriously violates his pledge to the people in aspiring to a third term and nomination. He ran on an anti-third term platform, and to-day stands as firmly pledged not to become a candidate again as did any member of the Legislature to oppose a modification of the Bullion Tax law. There can be no degrees or exceptions with regard to the binding force of platforms. They must be held sacred or utterly worthless. It will not do for men who denounced the advocates of a reduction of the Bullion Tax to turn up now as the chief of platform breakers. They can not do it and maintain any semblance of honesty or consistency, and by the Eternal they shall not do it without a solemn protest from this end of the line. Every supporter of Bradley in the State says by such preference and support that platforms are meaningless and their utterances as idle as the wind. We have no objection to this; in fact we believe there is more truth than poetry in the assumption. Kearney says in San Francisco that platforms are frauds, and twenty thousand men throw up their hats and shout, "bully for Kearney." We say the same thing in Nevada, and the followers of Bradley raise their hands in holy horror and say Casady has been guilty of an outrageous blunder.

The Eureka Sentinel says this, and we quote because it is what we might call a patent reversible editorial. It is a great comfort to quote an article which answers itself so completely and satisfactorily. There are a great many who know that Cassidy's opposition will be Bradley's strongest card. The old proverb that dead men tell no tales has been contradicted in Eureka.

STANDING IN OUR OWN LIGHT.

We should do a good work for Reno if we convinced property-holders that high rents are injuring the town. There are many good business men who have grown up with the town and yet find themselves compelled to work without profit in these hard times. All of the margin goes to pay rent. Money is scarcer than ever before in this State, and yet rates of rent and interest increase rather than decrease.

New-comers are pleased with the town and its prospects, and yet hesitate to pay enormous rents where they have to build up a business from nothing.

Old settlers who paid well when times justified them now find that when times are dull the property-owners refuse to carry any of the burden, and seem to conspire against a return of prosperity. This is all wrong. The houses and lots should pro rate with the hardships which active business capital must suffer. Those who rent places of business in Reno can reduce their rates materially, and yet make good interest upon their investment. Such a reduction would make your leases more permanent, and lighten burdens of every man in town. New men would come to us, and the payment of rents would be more regular and satisfactory.

CONSISTENCY.

The Eureka Sentinel is in receipt of a private letter from a prominent Democrat of Pieche, suggesting ex-Senator Wescott, of Lincoln, as a very proper person for the nomination for Governor in the coming campaign in this State. The writer further states that the Democracy of Lincoln are unwilling to stultify themselves and the pronounced record of their party by favoring Bradley for a third term. There is no doubt but that this spirit should rule the Democracy, but we wonder that the Sentinel would notice such a letter. The Democracy of Lincoln urges in that communication a reverence for platforms, whereas we all know that "platforms were made to catch votes."

The Senate resumed the consideration of the bill to repeal specie resumption, and Matthews read an argument on the general financial policy of the Government, and gave notice that he would hereafter submit to the Senate a proposition of his own as an amendment to the pending bill.

The Santa Barbara Press is informed that within eighteen months Stanford & Co. will build a railroad from Newhall to Santa Barbara.

The Portland Oregonian of Friday has the following: Wednesday a heavy mortgage was recorded in the County Clerk's office. It was for $293,495 87, given by the Oregon Steamship Co.

It seems to be the opinion of parties in Eastern Oregon and Idaho that there will be Indian troubles this summer. Already the Bannocks at Fort Hall have begun their crusade by stealing horses.

Governor Irwin has pardoned Geo. W. Shuster, who was convicted at the October, 1877, term of the County Court of Sonoma county of assault with a deadly weapon, and sentenced to the county jail for three months and to pay a fine of $275, or be imprisoned one day for each dollar of the fine.

Outrage in Stockton.

A Stockton dispatch of the 15th inst. gives the following particulars of a recent outrage committed at that place:

A week ago two young fellows, one a Mexican and the other a white boy, well connected in the neighborhood of French Camp, about five miles from this city, committed an outrage upon an unoffending Chinaman, who now lies in a very critical condition, and not expected to recover from the injury received at their hands. These boys have been accustomed to collect toll from defenseless Chinamen passing a certain road, and on Monday last they stopped this Chinaman for that purpose. He refused to pay, and they resorted to extreme measures. The boys were mounted on horses and carried lariats. One of them lassoed the Chinaman around the neck, and the other about the heels, and dragged him about half a mile at a rapid gait, the Chinaman tumbling along and bounding several feet from the ground. Finally they quit their work with the remark that "The Chinese must go." The boys left the vicinity next morning, and as several white persons saw the affair, testimony will not be wanting to make a strong case against them. The friends of the white boy have made overtures to the Chinaman to settle this matter up without going to law, but so far they have been unsuccessful.

Jottings.

A number of Renoites will visit Pyramid mining district next Sunday.

Ex-Governor Blaisdell is inspecting the Pyramid mines. He is a mining man and has had his eye on Pyramid district for some time.

A royal treat is in store for our citizens next Wednesday evening. The Union Square company will present the Celebrated Case at Smith's Academy of Music.

Yankee Dodge, who has a variety store on Virginia street, inserts a local ad., the truth of which he only asks the reader to call upon him and price his goods to verify.

The Schively furnace will start up to-morrow. The ore shipped from Orneans will arrive here to-morrow morning. The furnace has been in readiness for several days.

The Harrington case was argued to-day and this afternoon went to the jury. It is probable that Harrington will either be convicted of murder in the first or second degree.

Mr. C. W. Perry, who is agent of Wheeler & Kirby's mowers and reapers, is selling quite a number of these excellent machines to our farmers both in this county and the adjoining counties in the north.

The man with the panacea held forth to a large crowd last night at Barnett's corner. Men stood there for more than an hour listening to his versatile talk, his pleasant stories and comical songs. Of course he sold his nostrum.

MAGNATES.—A special car of railroad and Western Union telegraph magnates, have just passed eastward. They travel by special car and drop into all the railroad offices of the C. P. R. R. and the telegraph offices of the Western Union. Chief engineer Clement is on board and he and his assistants examine all the bridges, culverts, snow sheds, etc., of the road. These nobobs are now en route to Ogden, and will return to San Francisco in a few days.

COMMITTEE MEETING.—The executive committee of the Workingmen's party are requested by their Chairman to meet this evening at the residence of Mr. John Hoy, on Virginia street. Business of importance will be presented at this meeting, hence a full attendance of the committee is desired.

MUSICAL.—This evening the last musical of the present term of the Episcopal seminary, will be given at the "School for Girls." The parents of the students and those interested in this school are invited to attend.

The Contract.

The Workingmen, at the meeting Wednesday night adopted a series of resolutions which are pertinent and full of meaning, as may be seen from the following resolution:

Resolved, That we the Workingmen, of Washoe county, do upon our most sacred honor pledge ourselves each to the other that we will en masse resist the working of Chinamen upon the Steamboat Springs canal, peaceably if we can, forcibly if we must. The canal, if built, must be built by white men and colored citizens.

That relying upon the justice of our cause, we ask the sympathy of all the workingmen of the State and every true lover of popular constitutional government.

The occasion for these strong expressions on the part of the workingmen arose from the letting by the Steamboat and Truckee Canal Company of a contract to a Chinese company of San Francisco, to construct a canal or large irrigating ditch which will extend from a point near Verdi to a point near Brown's station on the V. & T. R. R. The contract was advertised for bids from any responsible party or company. The lowest bid was made, as may be inferred from the above, by a Chinese company, for $36,000. Mr. Everett, who put in a bid for $36,000, would not agree to employ none but white men, and therefore the workingmen no longer consider his bid. The next lowest white man's bid was something near $40,000. The workingmen feel, and this feeling is shared very generally by our citizens, that an injustice has been done to them, since those who let this contract are white men, have made their money in this country from white men, and in their own class are found many honest white men who want work and are willing to labor at very low wages. Further, they are in great need of employment, and are residents of this county, where they propose to continue to reside and spend their money. The ditch trustees will hold a meeting next Monday in this town, at which meeting they will hear the committee appointed to present the claims and solicitations of the workingmen.

The Closing Exercises.

The closing exercises of Mt. St. Mary's school will be held on the 4th of next month. The examination will be conducted during the day, and will be open and free to all. In the evening an interesting programme will be presented for the witnessing of which there will be an admission charged.

On the evening of the 5th the exercises will be more extended and will consist of tableaux, recitations, readings and music, the whole to be supplemented with a strawberry festival. Further particulars will be given before the time of these exercises.

WOOD CONTRACT.—The wood contract of Yerrington & Biass for the cutting and fluming of about 30,000 cords of wood in White's and Thomas' canyons has been let to several different parties. Among the contractors are Joe Cross & Co., Barney & Co., S. Carlo & Co., and Douglas Bros. Several Italians also have a part of the above contract. The bonanzas men have concluded in the main to purchase their wood and lumber this year, finding that they can buy cheaper than they can manufacture.

OLD WASHORITE.—Wylie Russell, an old resident of Washoe city, has opened the Granger house, where he will take pleasure in providing for the refreshment of his many friends and other patrons. The lodging apartments have been ready for the reception of the weary for a week or more, but yesterday morning the first meal was spread for the entertainment of the palate. Give Russell a call and we will trust to him to make you at home, and to treat you like a gentleman.

MINING MACHINERY.—The United Brooklyn mining company yesterday received hoisting works, machinery, two boilers and a large pump. These will be placed in position at once and the work of developing the East Brooklyn mine be prosecuted with more system and rapidity than heretofore. Supt. Roker is a stirring, intelligent business gentleman, and will, within a few months, prove the value of the mining property under his charge.

TAILINGS.—Messrs. Partridge & Baldwin have purchased the tailings of the Parker mill, in Washoe canyon, and will at once take the necessary steps for working them. As there are about 200,000 tons of this ore waste, these gentlemen will be some three or four years in their reduction.

JUST THE THING.—A neatly dressed man can take some comfort with himself and at the same time be favorably regarded by his friends. It is true economy to buy good clothing, and of a style in conformity with the prevailing patterns. The next question is, where shall one get, during these hard times, a good article of underwear, business or dress suit, which gives satisfaction in price and quality of goods? Messrs. Cohen & Isaacs, at the Branch White House, on Commercial Row, next door to the post office, is your place, gentlemen. They have all the latest styles of men's and boy's clothing, and at all prices and sizes. Their stock is both large and complete. A man can go into their store and get a full outfit, hat, suit of outer and underwear, and boots or shoes as he may prefer. These gentlemen have just received a full stock of spring and summer clothing, and defy competition in their selling prices, as well as in the quality of goods which they sell.

Temporary Suspension.

The Meat Shipping Association closed its doors to-day, and will transact little business before the first of July next. The cause of this temporary suspension is that its managers find that they cannot compete against California cattle men until more good beef cattle come into this market. In California the grass is more advanced than here, and beef cattle are therefore better and more numerous than they are in this State at this time. We have the cattle, but they must feed on the incoming range for some six weeks yet before they are properly ready for market. Should the weather, however, prove most favorable, operations at the company's slaughter house may be resumed by the 20th prox.

CHEAP BERRIES.—Virginia city appreciates something good to eat. This morning 300 cases of strawberries were shipped to that virtuous town. But berries sell on the Comstock 100 per cent cheaper than in Reno. This burg would have larger consignments of the wholesome fruits provided they were sold cheaper in our markets. Ripe fruit eaten at the proper time is the most wholesome food one can eat in summer.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

CHEAPER THAN EVER.—Go to Yankee Dodge's for anything in the Yankee line. Pictures, hats, ladies' dresses, ladies' hose, also ladies' summer cloaks, ladies' hats, mosquito bar. Gents' shirts and drawers, socks, suspenders, gloves, jewelry, handkerchiefs, toilet soaps and other things too numerous to mention. Don't forget this the cheapest place in town. Opposite Reno Opera House, Virginia street, Reno. 5-17 tf

KALSOIMIXING.—Old Hank Mat is still in the field, and wants his share of what there is to do. Plenty of references to character of work.

Alfalfa, Timothy, Red Top, Blitze Grass, White Clover and Lawn Grass. Also the largest and best assortment of Garden Seeds ever offered in this market, fresh from the celebrated seed farms of D. M. Ferry & Co., Michigan, for sale at the lowest rates by OSHURE & SHOMAKER, Druggists, Reno, Nev.

The Reno Drug Store, (late Heole), is constantly receiving consignments of oils, paints, varnishes, brushes, etc., which are offered at moderate prices. Wm. Pinniger druggist, etc. 4-9

Some one (married, of course) marks upon the strangeness of the fact that, while a woman takes to it intuitively, very few men have the slightest idea how to hold a baby. Quite true, and it is even more extraordinary, when you come to think about it, that even fewer men ever want to learn.

Two card-playing friends were passengers through a forest when one asked the other this audacious question: "Why cannot the proprietor of this forest fell his own timber?" When the stupid young man gave it up the other answered: "Because no one is allowed to cut when it is his own deal."

The Cornell Senior engineers having finished their survey of Cayuga lake will begin operations on Seneca lake on the 27th inst. The Seniors have presented the Engineering Department of the University with an elegant and expensive set of signals and field-flags, which will be used in the forthcoming work.
